HAMMERSTEIN MAY QUIT.

GERMANY IS PLEASED.

New York, Dec. 22.—In a note which Oscar Hammerstein mailed today to the Manhattan Opera House, among subscribers he says that unless he receives better support from the public he may quit here next season and divide his time between Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, which cities are ready to furnish him satisfactory engagements. He states that as nothing is available through ill health, or long absences to Europe, and especially to German commercial enterprises.

SPORTS

STANFORD'S TEAM WILL BE STRONG

Men Who Will Be On Squad For Next Season

Stanford University, Calif., Dec. 21, now that the football season of 1907 is at a close, the Stanford supporters are keen to know what kind of a team they will have for 1908, and what available material will return for Coach Presley and Fenton to work on. At the present time it appears that a majority of the veterans who are back and these will be markedly strengthened by some who were not on the squad this year.

The greatest loss to the team will be Kenny Fenton, who has determined not to play as a graduate. Although Fenton has played but two years on the Varsity, he has been the bright Rugby star both years. Fenton would be eligible to play next year as a law graduate, but California might protest on the ground that Fenton will have played baseball four seasons. Fenton decided to forego this possibility of complaint and also to respond to the entreaties from home that he take no further part.

Among the forwards, Stanford will lose both front rank men through graduation. The team will sorely miss Captain Koerner, '98, and Horner Rhine, '97. But two able men will be there to take their places. Chas. Terrell, '98, this year's substitute, and "Warehouse" Chein, '10, one of the '07 team, who will return in January. The only other man who will be lost to the arms is J. R. Teuberlein, '98, who is going on a pedagogic expedition next year. His position will be ably taken by Harry Brown, the old Varsity tackle, who was ineligible this year, but who played a big game with the substitutes last Saturday. The other seven positions will probably be the same, with Crawford, '99; Mithun, '99; Thorpe, '99; and Miller, '98. Reynolds, '10, who won his Varsity "S" this year, may win one of these positions and "Gib" Worthington, '99, who will return to college next year, may shut out one of these.

For wing forward these will be the same two contestants who fought so hard against each other this year—Frank Mayers, '99, and "C.J." Penerton, '10.

For second half "it is hard to tell who will fit the place so ably held by Fenton; it will probably be taken by "Carthy" Owen, '99, who played in the '06 game. For wings there will be a great fight between Holman, Reed and Cook. For center three-quarters the peerless Vanovervoort will be there. For fly-eights Stanford will have the invincible twin, "Mow" Michell, '10, and "Hilly" Gaines, '10. Brown and Casewhalder will fight it out for fullback this year. So it may readily be seen that if present indications are realized, Stanford will have a crack veteran team for next year, with only four changes in the fifteen, and none in the half-back, where it is felt most. Stanford will not only have a good team, but probably a better one.

TEDDY JR. BECOMES A BOXING FAN

Boston, Mass., Dec. 25.—Young Teddy Roosevelt has become an enthusiastic boxing fan and attends all the bouts in the vicinity of Boston. He witnessed the Freddie Welsh-Davey Boucher bout at Chelsea a few nights ago, and visited Welsh in the latter's dressing room after the fight.

Roosevelt watched the bout in company with George M. Cohan, the actor, and, thinking the Englishman had been overmatched, cast his sympathies with the lad from old Albion. He was delighted to see the way the Briton skillfully jabbed and after the right shook hands with Welsh.

He is learning the game from a former ring star in Boston. His friends say that he is already a good boxer and equal to any one of his weight in college.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

Honest now! That Parade was a whiz, all right, all right, eh?

ST. CLAIR BRIDGE, manager of the Makaha golf links, has arranged to have Mr. McLaren, the professional golfer, make a few strokes today.

Who says the Monkey in the Parade has no tail?

Automobiles en route from the East to California of late have been riddled by tramps breaking into automobile box cars. The White steamer for the White garage in Los Angeles, which arrived recently over the Salt Lake road, had been used en route as beds for hooligan stealers. Not content with enjoying the "Putt-Putt" luxury of these big cars, the bobs had marked them up with the big knives they carry and with their shoes. This vandalism was committed between Cleveland and Salt Lake City.

It does not seem probable that Longboat, the famous Canadian Indian runner, will be allowed to take part in the Pascime Athletic Club games at Madison Square Garden Jan. 27. He is under suspension by the Amateur Athletic Union, and President Sullivan of that organization has told the Pastime Club committee that he cannot compete in any games unless he is formally reinstated. The club was notified that if Longboat were advertised to take part in the games the sanction for the meeting would be withdrawn.

For wing forward these will be the same two contestants who fought so hard against each other this year—Frank Mayers, '99, and "C.J." Penerton, '10.

NEW RULES PROPOSED

FOR AUTO RACING

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 7, 1907.—Automobile racing, which last year resulted in a large number of fatalities and serious accidents to spectators and participants, is to be shorn of a great part of its terrors. By the adoption of a revised set of rules and restrictions, the American Automobile Association believes that auto racing will become as safe as any strenuous contest may be.

It was at a meeting of the Sanctions Committee, which later reported to the Executive Committee of the national organization at its meeting at the Coliseum auto show yesterday that the new rules were drawn up.

The new provisions specify that the organization will not sanction a race that is not given in accordance with all of these rules. Prior to the granting of sanctions, an investigation of the tracks must be made by a committee consisting of three members.

The men will split their share of the percentage at 75 and 25 per cent, at the suggestion of Unholz.

George Memrie (Jimmy Burns) and Rudolph Unholz, the Beer fighters, were matched recently to box ten rounds before the Pacific Athletic Club Jan. 3, at 135 pounds at 3 o'clock. Memrie demanded one weight and Unholz will enter the ring several pounds lighter than his opponent. The men will split their share of the percentage at 75 and 25 per cent, at the suggestion of Unholz.
